COURSES FOR MFL TEACHERS

This course is exclusively for MFL teachers who have a solid knowledge of the language but want to upskill or expand their knowledge. The course is mainly focused on conversation skills on a good range of social and cultural topics.

OBJECTIVES

- To improve teachers' advanced language skills, including an extensive vocabulary, sophisticated grammar & refined pronunciation to model and teach advanced language usage to students.
- To train teachers to guide students in the mastery of advanced discourse skills, such as formal and informal register, complex sentence structure & idiomatic expressions, enabling students to express ideas with precision.
- To deepen teachers' knowledge of cultural and societal topics related to the target language, including literature, history, current affairs, and contemporary trends.
- To develop teachers' skills in designing engaging lesson plans with appropriate teaching materials, creating meaningful activities that cater to diverse learner needs.

TEACHER

Megan Heath

Megan is a fully qualified languages teacher with over 15 years experience of teaching German and French. She completed a BScEcon combined honours degree in Politics and Languages at Cardiff University.

With experience of teaching English to adults and children in the Czech Republic and working as an LSA in a secondary school in Kent she qualified in her PGCE 2008 from Cumbria University.

She has extensive experience with training new teachers with PGCE, NQT and UG education courses. She loves making new resources, finding new ways to explain difficult concepts, experimenting with visual support to engage students, especially when explaining complex grammar. She has completed work in schools on how useful language skills are in the workplace and led work on increasing uptake at GCSE and A-Level languages.
