TEACHER

Ellie Attack

Ellie is an experienced French teacher and tutor who has worked with pupils of a wide range of abilities and firmly believes that all students should be able to be successful language learners.

As an examiner, and subject leader for French, Ellie has an in depth understanding of the GCSE mark scheme and how to support and challenge students to approach their exams with confidence and competence, in particular the writing and speaking exams.

Ellie enjoys building a strong rapport with her students, so that they feel confident and safe when working in French. Ellie understands that speaking and listening to a foreign language can feel intimidating and cause some anxiety, so adopts a warm and friendly approach to support those she works with.
