UPSKILLING COURSES FOR MFL TEACHERS

This A Level upskilling course is designed for MFL teachers with a strong command of the language who want to further develop their skills. It focuses on improving spoken fluency through conversation practice on a range of social and cultural topics.

OBJECTIVES

- Equip teachers with practical strategies to develop confident conversational fluency across a broad range of social and cultural topics, strengthening both real-world communication and classroom interaction.
- Build confidence in meeting A-Level speaking assessment requirements by engaging with authentic exam-style questions and exploring effective, classroom-ready techniques for preparing students for oral examinations.
- Enhance teachers' linguistic and cultural repertoire through practical, immersive sessions designed to improve personal language proficiency while directly enriching classroom delivery and student outcomes.

TEACHER

Erica Sánchez

Erica is the Head of Languages at a secondary school in South Yorkshire. She qualified as a teacher in 2015 at the University of Reading. She also holds an MA Degree in Applied Linguistics from the University of Granada, Spain. Erica is able to teach Spanish to A-Level, French to GCSE, and German to KS3. She has led many initiatives to promote languages and increase uptake at GCSE and A-Level.

She has been responsible for mentoring both new and trainee staff members, and has successfully supervised a number of experienced colleagues. In addition, she has undertaken work for the BBC in the capacities of Educational Consultant and Proofreader, and has served as a GCSE examiner for both AQA and Pearson Edexcel. Furthermore, she holds an NPQ certificate in Teaching Leader Development.
