COURSES FOR MFL TEACHERS

This course is designed for MFL teachers with a foundation in Spanish who want to refresh and strengthen their language skills and increase confidence in lesson delivery. It focuses on improving pronunciation, consolidating key vocabulary and grammar, including complex structures, and building familiarity with GCSE-style exam questions and tasks, alongside practical classroom practice.

OBJECTIVES

- Develop teachers' confidence in Spanish pronunciation and spoken communication through structured, practical activities and guided speaking practice, aligned with authentic classroom scenarios.
- Strengthen and extend teachers' command of essential vocabulary and grammar, including a broad range of verb tenses and complex structures, to support accurate, fluent, and engaging classroom delivery.
- Develop teachers' skills in designing engaging lesson plans with appropriate teaching materials, creating meaningful activities that cater to diverse learner needs.

TEACHER

Erica Sánchez

Erica is the Head of Languages at a secondary school in South Yorkshire. She qualified as a teacher in 2015 at the University of Reading. She also holds an MA Degree in Applied Linguistics from the University of Granada, Spain. Erica is able to teach Spanish to A-Level, French to GCSE, and German to KS3. She has led many initiatives to promote languages and increase uptake at GCSE and A-Level.

She has extensive experience in staff development, having mentored new and trainee teachers as well as managed experienced colleagues. In addition, she has worked with the BBC as an Educational Consultant and Proofreader, and has served as a GCSE Examiner for both AQA and Edexcel. She also holds a National Professional Qualification (NPQ) in Teaching Leadership Development.
